CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

Shyamlal Saraswati Mahavidyalaya is affiliated with Ch. Charan Singh University, Meerut. curriculum are designed, revised and upgraded at the university level. The institute has a mechanism for effective, documented curriculum delivery. The academic activities are monitored and audited by the institute's IQAC and academic planning committee to ensure the delivery of the curriculum and the documentation process.

- IQAC and the Academic Planning Committee plans the session's academic calendar and circulate it to the central timetable committee to prepare a schedule. Curricular and co-curricular activities are planned in the academic calendar to achieve the desired outcomes.
- According to the academic calendar, each department plans its semester by finalising subject allocation to the faculty members based on their choices, timetable preparation, classroom allocation and circulating the same to students and faculty members.

- IQAC suggests corrective measures to improve students; remedial performance sessions are conducted to improve slow learners' results by clearing their fundamental concepts paper solving practice.

Departmental meetings plan the teaching-learning process and co-curricular activities. Teaching-learning is student-centric; many students are from rural areas and come from UP govtschools. so institute follows innovative teaching and creative pedagogies to deliver effective, qualitative teaching-learning processes.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

The institution strictly adheres to the academic calendar for the activities mentioned, including Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE). It is considered a crucial activity, as a well-planned Academic calendar and its adherence greatly impact outcomes. It is the first communication with all the stakeholders regarding academic and administrative scheduling for the ensuing semester. The academic calendar is prepared at the commencement of each semester (July/Jan). The same is then discussed with Principle, Heads of departments and program coordinators for further incorporations.

The process followed for the finalisation of the academic calendar is as follows:

1. The IQAC committee of the Institute then requests all the heads of the departments to share dates of events planned at the Institute level by the departments during the incoming semester.
2. The IQAC then prepares a draft academic calendar before the commencement of each semester in July/Jan in accordance with the University academic calendar and the information received from all departments.
3. IQAC then arranges a meeting in the presence of the principal with all heads of the Departments and the management representatives, where the calendar is put forward for final approval and suggestions.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Educational institutions must prioritise student learning and provide resources and support to help students achieve their full potential. Different students learn at different paces and have varying levels of understanding, so it is important for institutions to provide individualised support as needed.

The institution is taking steps to assess the learning levels of its students and provide special programs for both advanced and slow learners.

The specific methods that Shyamlal Saraswati Mahavidyalaya uses to assess the learning levels of students include:

- Diagnostic assessments: These are assessments administered at the beginning of a course or program to identify students' strengths and weaknesses in specific areas.

1. Mentor-mentee session
2. Group Discussion
3. Classroom Tests and Assignments
4. Brain Storming Activities
5. Quiz
6. Presentation

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

SSMV is highly motivated to deliver student-centric learning methods.

- Experiential learning is a student-centred approach that involves learning by doing, reflecting on the experience, and applying the knowledge gained to new situations. This is implemented in various ways, such as
 - Fieldworks Activities
 - Internships Courses
 - Skill-Oriented Programs
 - PowerPoint Presentation
 - Lab work with hands experiments

Experiential learning can help students develop critical thinking, problem-solving, and decision-making skills by providing them with opportunities to apply what they learn in real-life situations.

- Participative learning is another student-centred approach that emphasises active engagement and collaboration. This can include
 - Group Discussions
 - Students Seminars
 - Peer-to-peer learning
 - Project Assignments
 - Alumni Interactions
 - Poster making and presentation
 - Methods of Attempting Questions in Examination

Participative learning can help students develop communication, teamwork, and leadership skills by involving students in the learning process.

- Problem-solving methodologies are an approach to learning that involves identifying and analysing problems, developing possible solutions, and evaluating the effectiveness of those solutions. This can be applied in various contexts, such as
 - Home Assignments
 - Projects with real-world problems
 - Quizzes
 - Class Test with case studies

By encouraging students to think critically and creatively, problem-solving methodologies can help students develop analytical, research, and problem-solving skills.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools for effective teaching-learning process. Write description in maximum of 200 words

In SSVM ICT (Information and Communication Technology) enabled tools are implemented for effective teaching-learning processes. These tools can include various forms of digital technology, such as computers, tablets, interactive whiteboards, educational software, multimedia presentations, and online resources.

Teachers use these tools to engage their students in more interactive and dynamic learning experiences. They use multimedia presentations to make their lessons more visually appealing and easily understood. Educational software helps students practice and reinforce their learning, and online resources provide access to various information and educational materials.

The institute adopts the following ICT-based Teaching Learning tools.

- Google Meet to demonstrate students' skills online using Audio, Video, chart and model
- Google Classroom to track assignments and share notes
- Zoom to demonstrate online individual and group-based project activities.
- Online Motivational and Educational Videos

Institutes have well-equipped classrooms with ICT Infrastructure, as mentioned:

- LCD Projectors
- WiFi Campus
- CCTV for live monitoring
- Over Head Projector
- Digital Projectors

Teachers use ICT to deliver lectures, share notes, and evaluate individual and group project-based activities.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

The institute uses the internal assessment mechanism to evaluate its students' educational progress and performance during their academic course of study.

- To execute all academic, co-curricular and extracurricular activities proposed during the session, an academic calendar is prepared and displayed on the notice board of every department. It is strictly followed in terms of date, time, venues and programme of internal assessment by the students and the staff members to avoid confusion.
- The events proposed in the academic calendar are reviewed in the staff members' meeting, and the report is placed before the CDC (College development committee) for information and necessary suggestions.
- The institute publishes the news of success stories in the newspaper, which generalises the events' informatics as the stakeholders get a brief look at the events organised and provide suggestions for improvement.

The mode of assessment is also communicated to the students in advance, which includes written exams, oral presentations, practical demonstrations, or a combination of these methods.

Overall, a transparent and robust internal assessment mechanism is essential for promoting academic excellence, maintaining the credibility of the educational institution, and ensuring that students receive a fair and accurate evaluation of their academic performance.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time- bound and efficient

SSMV ensures a transparent and robust internal assessment mechanism for guaranteeing fairness and accuracy in grading and providing students with a clear understanding of their academic progress.

- The events proposed in the academic calendar are reviewed in the staff members' meeting, and the report is placed before the CDC (College development committee) for information and necessary suggestions.
- The institute publishes the news of success stories in the newspaper, which generalises the events' informatics as the stakeholders get a brief look at the events organised and provide suggestions for improvement.

The mode of assessment is also communicated to the students in advance, which includes written exams, oral presentations, practical demonstrations, or a combination of these methods.

In addition to transparency and robustness, The institutes ensure that the internal assessment mechanism should be unbiased and standardized. This means all students are consistently evaluated using the same criteria, and the grading system should be fair and impartial.

Overall, a transparent and robust internal assessment mechanism is essential for promoting academic excellence, maintaining the credibility of the educational institution, and ensuring that students receive a fair and accurate evaluation of their academic performance.

3.4 - Extension Activities

3.4.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

Extension activities are crucial in sensitizing students towards social issues and promoting holistic development. The primary objective of outreach and extension programs is to create a bridge between the community and the institution. The outreach activities focus on the overall development of the students and enhance their skills, which can contribute significantly to their future growth. SSMV is focused on conducting such activities regularly.

The Gender sensitisation Program by NSS/NCC is a regular initiative at the institute.

The NSS organises a seven-day residential camp in a nearby adopted village, where students address social issues like cleanliness, tree plantation, water conservation, social interaction, group discussion, eradication of superstition, Beti Bacho Beti Padhao, environmental awareness, women empowerment, national integrity, veterinary guidance, and farmers

Similarly, the NCC unit of the college organizes various extension activities like plantation, road safety awareness, Ekta daud for health, Swachhta Abhiyan, and national equality awareness, which help in the overall development of the students.

In conclusion, SSMV believes extension activities play a vital role in promoting the holistic development of students and sensitizing them towards social issues. These activities help inculcate a sense of responsibility, empathy, and leadership skills among students.

5.3.2 - Institution facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities (student council/ students representation on various bodies as per established processes and norms)

Students constitute a major stakeholder in institutional growth. The college believes in giving equal opportunity to the students by supporting the college faculty members in running various activities of the college. For this, the college allows them to participate in various academic and administrative activities.

Every Year the College conducts Sports Representatives, and All courses have Class Representatives (CR) for each class, nominated by students, faculty members, and the Head of the Department. These Class Representatives address the problems pertaining to the classroom, infrastructure, library, hygiene, and issues concerning student grievances.

Students' representation facilitates its investigation into the information against any complaints.

Students also have a strong representation in various related subject presentations, seminars, cultural activities, spiritual activities, and sports activities and help in the organization and management of college events with the faculty coordinator.

Students also organize and celebrate special events like Fresher's, Farewell, National Teachers Day, National Computer Security Day, Children's Day, Yoga Day, Environment Day, and other programs.

Participation in activities enhances their Quiz, Workshops, Presentations, seminars, communication skills, management skills, leadership skills, teamwork, time management, resource management skills, and Science exhibitions and builds confidence in each student.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

To support the institute's Vision i.e. to be a leading institution of higher education that fosters intellectual curiosity, critical thinking, and personal growth in students and empowers them to contribute positively to society, Governing body (IQAC) always endeavours to develop a friendly environment for teaching and learning. The IQAC welcomes the open exchange of ideas at various levels of the hierarchy. The stakeholders are involved in the decision-making process and policy formation. The institute also believes in involving stakeholders in feedback about curriculum, teaching-learning processes and the initiatives taken by the institution. The principal and the Management always welcome formal & informal discussions at various levels. The institute's management never compromises on human resource development and provides all the necessary infrastructure required for effective teaching-learning and keeping pace with the changing needs of higher education.

The institute's policies and strategies are reflective to encourage a strong industry Academia relationship. The outside-world participation of faculty & staff members is highly appreciated by the management of our institute, and necessary support is provided for keeping the motivation level high. The Leadership of the Institute encourages the faculty and staff members to attend and organize seminars, conferences and training programs for professional development.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

The performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff in institutions is a process that assesses the performance and effectiveness of employees within an organisation.

Here are some steps that SSVM focuses and follow to establish an effective performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff:

1. Clear performance expectations: The institution establishes clear performance expectations for employees. These expectations are aligned with the institution's vision and mission and are communicated to employees in a clear and concise manner.
2. Key performance indicators: The institution identifies key performance indicators (KPIs) that will be used to measure employee performance.
3. Performance review process: The institution has established a formal performance review process that includes regular evaluations and feedback. This process should be fair, objective, and consistent for all employees.
4. Provide training and development opportunities: The institution also provides training and development opportunities to help employees improve their skills and knowledge.
5. Recognize and reward performance: The institution recognizes and rewards high-performing employees. This includes bonuses, promotions, and other incentives that motivate employees to improve their performance.

Overall, an effective performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff helps SSMV to improve employee performance, enhance organisational performance, and achieve institutional goals.

6.4 - Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

6.4.1 - Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly Enumerate the various internal and external financial audits carried out during the year with the mechanism for settling audit objections within a maximum of 200 words

Auditing is an important part of Shyam Lal Saraswati Mahavidyalaya, and both internal and external audits are conducted regularly. Here are the key points regarding the audits:

Internal Audit:

- Conducted annually by the finance department of the college.
- Objective is to provide management with information to efficiently conduct college activities.
- Aims to safeguard against fraud and unlawful activities, ensure completeness and accuracy of financial records, and timely preparation of financial statements.
- Checks all receipts and payment vouchers, as well as purchases books, laboratory equipment, and materials at the least possible price by taking proper quotations from parties.

External Audit:

- Appointed by the college to perform auditors of the financial statements.
- Conducted by qualified chartered accountants at the end of each financial year.
- Certified financial records, including income and expenditures, balance sheet, and notes on accounts.

6.4.3 - Institutional strategies for mobilization of funds and the optimal utilization of resources

Institutional Strategies for mobilization of funds and optimal utilization of resources at Shyamlal Saraswati Mahavidyalaya:

1. The college is self-financed, generating funds through student fees and managed by the college trust for development.
2. The college has a well-defined mechanism to monitor the efficient and effective utilization of financial resources for academic processes and infrastructure development.
3. An institutional budget is prepared annually by the accounts department, considering recurring and non-recurring expenditure
4. Major financial decisions are made by the management committee and manager.
5. Major financial transactions are analyzed and verified for software and internet charges, library books/journals, repair and maintenance, printing and stationery, equipment and consumables, and furniture and fixtures.
6. The purchase committee, consisting of department heads and account officers, initiates the purchasing process after financial approval of the budget.
7. Payments are released after delivery of the respective goods, according to the terms and conditions in the purchase order.
8. Transactions are transparent through bills and vouchers, and only authorized personnel operate transactions through the bank.
9. The procurement process is monitored by the management committee and principal at the college level, then by the finance department at the corporate level.
10. Financial audits are conducted by a chartered accountant every fiscal year for compliance.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

Gender equality, also known as sexual equality or equality of the sexes, is the state of equal ease of access to resources and opportunities regardless of gender, including economic/social/religious participation and decision-making, and the state of valuing different behaviors, aspirations and needs equally, regardless of gender.

Our institution follows a number of different strategies to promote gender equality, including:

1. Establishing processes and procedures to address and prevent discrimination and harassment based on gender.

A. The Classroom Environment

1. Ensuring educational materials are free from gender stereotypes.
2. Helping students identify instances of gender bias, through awareness activities or historical events, laws, and cultural changes.

B. Safety and Security

1. Possession of I-card is Mandatory within the campus for all students and staff members. The outsiders' entry is prohibited.
1. The major area of the Campus is under CCTV surveillance. Security Personnels are available at the institute gate and are deployed at various locations in the premises to ensure safety and security

C. Awareness

D. Common Room

1. The Institute recognised the need for personal space for girls, especially in a co-educational institution. This is very essential for them to interact, discuss with their friends and also rest if and when needed.

SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT

Sources:

- Solid garbage.
- Solid waste material from various departments.
- Solid plantation waste.
- Plastics, glass, metals and food waste etc. from canteen.
- Medical waste.

Objectives:

1. Educate students and staff on proper waste management practices.
 2. Separate waste as dry and wet, collected on a daily basis
- Biodegradable

Canteen waste: The Canteen waste is being disposed to local Cattle Keepers to feed the waste to their animals.

Leaves and others: Leaves and others are used to prepare compost, used as manure in the Institute.

- Non-Biodegradable

This waste, including metals, bottles, plastics, cans, broken glass wares, tins etc., is sold out to Local vendors.

Departmental Compost Bins:

1. Plastic bins of different sizes are provided to each department to compost wet waste.
2. Botany and Home Science departments use it to prepare small quantities of compost for plants grown by the department.

Recycling of Old Newspapers:

1. Various departments reuse old newspapers stored in the library for different purposes.

E-Waste Management:

1. Electronics can be reused, refurbished.
2. Return non-working devices to the manufacturer or e-waste managing unit.

Guidelines for Solid Waste Management:

1. Biodegradable waste goes in the green dustbin, and non-biodegradable in the blue dustbin.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The institution plans and conducts various programs periodically to promote constitutional values, rights, duties, and responsibilities of citizens. It also designs various activities to create awareness about national identity and symbols with the aim of familiarizing stakeholders about fundamental duties and rights.

Independence Day is celebrated 15th August every year to mark the importance of freedom. A flag hosting ceremony is organized followed by recitation of the National Anthem. Parades and patriotic song competitions are also organized to instill love for the motherland among students. Additionally, N.S.S./NCC Volunteers organize special programs like Azadi 75 Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav to raise awareness among students about the struggles of freedom fighters.

Activities such as slogan writing, poster competitions, and paintings are also conducted to create awareness about the Indian Constitution.

Similarly, Constitutional Day is celebrated every year on 26th November to commemorate the adoption of the constitution of India, and Voter's Day on 25th January to raise awareness among the general public about the importance of voting. A workshop on the Right to Information (RTI) Act 2005 is also organized

All these programs and events aim to promote constitutional values, rights, duties, and responsibilities of citizens, and serve the community.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

<>I.The institution prioritizes its duty towards the environment and aims to instil environmental conservation values among students.

- Tree plantation drives are regularly conducted to promote a greener campus.
- Dust bins for proper disposal of sanitary pads are installed in girls' washrooms

Evidence of Success:

Our institution has meticulously adhered to the Government notification by implementing eco-friendly practices. Solar energy panels have been installed to meet the college's electricity requirements, and the wastewater is recycled for gardening purposes.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

The institution has also banned the use of cigarettes and tobacco products, but students need to be aware of the hazardous effects of such toxic products on their health.

<>II.

Objectives of the Practice:

- To foster a strong and meaningful relationship between mentors and students for overall well-being and success

The Practice:

- Each teacher is assigned a group of 25-30 students for their study, providing personalised attention
- Special care is provided to weak students to assist with their studies and doubts

Evidence of Success:

The success of the practice is evident through various factors such as higher university rankings, improved exam results, increased attendance, reduced dropout rates, enhanced participation in co-curricular and extracurricular activities.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

The institute is committed and dedicatedly working for the holistic development of all stakeholders. The major area of focus is:

- Environment for Student Academic Success
- Importance of Addressing Health and Skill Development
- Understanding the Learning Needs of Students

- Diversifying Learning Resources and Method
- Using Plays to Create Curiosity
- Adapting Teaching Methods to Meet Student Needs
- Child-Centered Education Policy for All-Round Development of Students

The following principles guide our education policy towards individual commitment to student academic success within a community that values diversity and unity. The policy focuses on imparting knowledge and emphasises health and skill development, connecting academic learning to real-life situations.

Students who are physically or economically disadvantaged should not be deprived of the learning experience. They can be shown the lesson through projectors, laptops, or smart classes. Group discussions based on the textbook allow students to learn from each other's experiences and improve their learning processes.

Making the lesson interesting through plays creates curiosity and a desire to learn more.

Our policy focuses on students' all-around development, where teachers and students are determined to achieve their goals. Teachers keep making adjustments and changes to meet the needs of their students.

Part B

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

Shyamlal Saraswati Mahavidyalaya is affiliated with Ch. Charan Singh University, Meerut. curriculum are designed, revised and upgraded at the university level. The institute has a mechanism for effective, documented curriculum delivery. The academic activities are monitored and audited by the institute's IQAC and academic planning committee to ensure the delivery of the curriculum and the documentation process.

- IQAC and the Academic Planning Committee plans the session's academic calendar and circulate it to the central timetable committee to prepare a schedule. Curricular and co-curricular activities are planned in the academic calendar to achieve the desired outcomes.
- According to the academic calendar, each department plans its semester by finalising subject allocation to the faculty members based on their choices, timetable preparation, classroom allocation and circulating the same to students and faculty members.
- IQAC suggests corrective measures to improve students; remedial performance sessions are conducted to improve slow learners' results by clearing their fundamental concepts paper solving practice.

Departmental meetings plan the teaching-learning process and co-curricular activities. Teaching-learning is student-centric; many students are from rural areas and come from UP govtschools. so institute follows innovative teaching and creative pedagogies to deliver effective, qualitative teaching-learning processes.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of

Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

The institution strictly adheres to the academic calendar for the activities mentioned, including Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE). It is considered a crucial activity, as a well-planned Academic calendar and its adherence greatly impact outcomes. It is the first communication with all the stakeholders regarding academic and administrative scheduling for the ensuing semester. The academic calendar is prepared at the commencement of each semester (July/Jan). The same is then discussed with Principle, Heads of departments and program coordinators for further incorporations.

The process followed for the finalisation of the academic calendar is as follows:

1. The IQAC committee of the Institute then requests all the heads of the departments to share dates of events planned at the Institute level by the departments during the incoming semester.
2. The IQAC then prepares a draft academic calendar before the commencement of each semester in July/Jan in accordance with the University academic calendar and the information received from all departments.
3. IQAC then arranges a meeting in the presence of the principal with all heads of the Departments and the management representatives, where the calendar is put forward for final approval and suggestions.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

Besides curriculum, our Institute endeavours to organise additional activities/ programs/ events to make the students aware of their surroundings and maintain a healthy environment. As mentioned below, sufficient committees/clubs/cells are established in the Institute to take care of these crosscutting issues

- Human Rights: The college conducts various programmes on human rights to provide awareness among students.
 - Blood donation programmes
 - Health Awareness programmes
 - Tree plantation

•Woman Grievances Committee:

- To consider the complaints of grievances from female teaching staff, non-teaching staff & girl students
- To undertake motivational & developmental activities related to professional ethics & rights and gender equality for female staff & girl students.

- Discipline Committee: Discipline is the bridge between goals and accomplishment. Hence education should bring moral and ethical values of well-being to learners, and every educator and educating institution should strive hard to bring in the core human values in learning.

- To ensure a calm and peaceful academic atmosphere on the campus
- To prohibit Smoking strictly on the college campus.
- To maintain proper discipline in the college canteen and student waiting room during the college working hours.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Educational institutions must prioritise student learning and provide resources and support to help students achieve their full potential. Different students learn at different paces and have varying levels of understanding, so it is important for institutions to provide individualised support as needed.

The institution is taking steps to assess the learning levels of its students and provide special programs for both advanced and slow learners.

The specific methods that Shyamlal Saraswati Mahavidyalaya uses to assess the learning levels of students include:

- Diagnostic assessments: These are assessments administered at the beginning of a course or program to identify students' strengths and weaknesses in specific areas.

1. Mentor-mentee session
2. Group Discussion
3. Classroom Tests and Assignments
4. Brain Storming Activities
5. Quiz

4. Motivation for Research public
5. Remedial classes
6. Guidance and counselling sessions
7. Mentor-Mentee Sessions
8. Special guidance from subject matter experts

- Differentiated instruction: This approach involves tailoring instruction and assignments to meet the needs of individual students based on their learning levels and styles.

1. Appreciation of Meritorious Students by Awards
2. Career Guidance

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

SSMV is highly motivated to deliver student-centric learning methods.

- Experiential learning is a student-centred approach that involves learning by doing, reflecting on the experience, and applying the knowledge gained to new situations. This is implemented in various ways, such as
 - Fieldworks Activities
 - Internships Courses
 - Skill-Oriented Programs
 - PowerPoint Presentation
 - Lab work with hands experiments

Experiential learning can help students develop critical thinking, problem-solving, and decision-making skills by providing them with opportunities to apply what they learn in real-life situations.

- Participative learning is another student-centred approach that emphasises active engagement and collaboration. This can include
 - Group Discussions
 - Students Seminars
 - Peer-to-peer learning
 - Project Assignments
 - Alumni Interactions
 - Poster making and presentation
 - Methods of Attempting Questions in Examination

Participative learning can help students develop communication, teamwork, and leadership skills by involving students in the learning process.

- Problem-solving methodologies are an approach to learning that involves identifying and analysing problems, developing possible solutions, and evaluating the effectiveness of those solutions. This can be applied in various contexts, such as
 - Home Assignments
 - Projects with real-world problems
 - Quizzes
 - Class Test with case studies

By encouraging students to think critically and creatively, problem-solving methodologies can help students develop analytical, research, and problem-solving skills.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools for effective teaching-learning process. Write description in maximum of 200 words

In SSVM ICT (Information and Communication Technology) enabled tools are implemented for effective teaching-learning processes. These tools can include various forms of digital technology, such as computers, tablets, interactive whiteboards, educational software, multimedia presentations, and online resources.

Teachers use these tools to engage their students in more interactive and dynamic learning experiences. They use multimedia presentations to make their lessons more visually appealing and easily understood. Educational software helps students practice and reinforce their learning, and online resources provide access to various information and educational materials.

The institute adopts the following ICT-based Teaching Learning tools.

- Google Meet to demonstrate students' skills online using Audio, Video, chart and model
- Google Classroom to track assignments and share notes
- Zoom to demonstrate online individual and group-based project activities.
- Online Motivational and Educational Videos

Institutes have well-equipped classrooms with ICT Infrastructure, as mentioned:

- LCD Projectors
- WiFi Campus
- CCTV for live monitoring
- Over Head Projector
- Digital Projectors

Teachers use ICT to deliver lectures, share notes, and evaluate individual and group project-based activities.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

The institute uses the internal assessment mechanism to evaluate its students' educational progress and performance during their academic course of study.

- To execute all academic, co-curricular and extracurricular activities proposed during the session, an academic calendar is prepared and displayed on the notice board of every department. It is strictly followed in terms of date, time, venues and programme of internal assessment by the students and the staff members to avoid confusion.
- The events proposed in the academic calendar are reviewed in the staff members' meeting, and the report is placed before the CDC (College development committee) for information and necessary suggestions.
- The institute publishes the news of success stories in the newspaper, which generalises the events' informatics as the stakeholders get a brief look at the events organised and provide suggestions for improvement.

The mode of assessment is also communicated to the students in advance, which includes written exams, oral presentations, practical demonstrations, or a combination of these methods.

Overall, a transparent and robust internal assessment mechanism is essential for promoting academic excellence, maintaining the credibility of the educational institution, and ensuring that students receive a fair and accurate evaluation of their academic performance.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time-bound and efficient

SSMV ensures a transparent and robust internal assessment mechanism for guaranteeing fairness and accuracy in grading and providing students with a clear understanding of their academic progress.

- The events proposed in the academic calendar are reviewed in the staff members' meeting, and the report is placed before the CDC (College development committee) for information and necessary suggestions.
- The institute publishes the news of success stories in the newspaper, which generalises the events' informatics as the stakeholders get a brief look at the events organised and provide suggestions for improvement.

The mode of assessment is also communicated to the students in advance, which includes written exams, oral presentations, practical demonstrations, or a combination of these methods.

In addition to transparency and robustness, The institutes ensure that the internal assessment mechanism should be unbiased and standardized. This means all students are consistently evaluated using the same criteria, and the grading system should be fair and impartial.

Overall, a transparent and robust internal assessment mechanism is essential for promoting academic excellence, maintaining the credibility of the educational institution, and ensuring that students receive a fair and accurate evaluation of their academic performance.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

The institution ensures that course objectives and outcomes align with program outcomes through direct and indirect assessment methods. Direct methods involve evaluating student performance in

- internal assessments
- University examinations

while indirect methods include:

- collecting student feedback,
- conducting surveys,
- hosting alumni events, and
- reviewing news articles.

Home assignments are assigned to learners to promote self-study, who often refer to textbooks and reference materials to explore new ideas and understand the given criteria.

Additionally, the institution utilizes various assessment tools, such as annual examinations, unit tests, workshops, field surveys, practical work, projects, and seminars, to evaluate student progress toward achieving course and program outcomes.

The institution also fosters the attainment of course and program outcomes by organising curricular and extra-curricular activities. Overall, the institution employs various methods and tools to ensure that students achieve the desired learning outcomes and that the programs and courses remain relevant and effective.

3.4 - Extension Activities

3.4.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

Extension activities are crucial in sensitizing students towards social issues and promoting holistic development. The primary objective of outreach and extension programs is to create a bridge between the community and the institution. The outreach activities focus on the overall development of the students and enhance their skills, which can contribute significantly to their future growth. SSMV is focused on conducting such activities regularly.

The Gender sensitisation Program by NSS/NCC is a regular initiative at the institute.

The NSS organises a seven-day residential camp in a nearby adopted village, where students address social issues like cleanliness, tree plantation, water conservation, social interaction, group discussion, eradication of superstition, Beti Bacho Beti Padhao, environmental awareness, women empowerment, national integrity, veterinary guidance, and farmers

Similarly, the NCC unit of the college organizes various extension activities like plantation, road safety awareness, Ekta daud for health, Swachhta Abhiyan, and national equality awareness, which help in the overall development of the students.

In conclusion, SSMV believes extension activities play a vital role in promoting the holistic development of students and sensitizing them towards social issues. These activities help inculcate a sense of responsibility, empathy, and leadership skills among students.

5.3.2 - Institution facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities (student council/ students representation on various bodies as per established processes and norms)

Students constitute a major stakeholder in institutional growth. The college believes in giving equal opportunity to the students by supporting the college faculty members in running various activities of the college. For this, the college allows them to participate in various academic and administrative activities.

Every Year the College conducts Sports Representatives, and All courses have Class Representatives (CR) for each class, nominated by students, faculty members, and the Head of the Department. These Class Representatives address the problems pertaining to the classroom, infrastructure, library, hygiene, and issues concerning student grievances.

Students' representation facilitates its investigation into the information against any complaints.

Students also have a strong representation in various related subject presentations, seminars, cultural activities, spiritual activities, and sports activities and help in the organization and management of college events with the faculty coordinator.

Students also organize and celebrate special events like Fresher's, Farewell, National Teachers Day, National Computer Security Day, Children's Day, Yoga Day, Environment Day, and other programs.

Participation in activities enhances their Quiz, Workshops, Presentations, seminars, communication skills, management skills, leadership skills, teamwork, time management, resource management skills, and Science exhibitions and builds confidence in each student.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

The performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff in institutions is a process that assesses the performance and effectiveness of employees within an organisation.

Here are some steps that SSVM focuses and follow to establish an effective performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff:

1. Clear performance expectations: The institution establishes clear performance expectations for employees. These expectations are aligned with the institution's vision and mission and are communicated to employees in a clear and concise manner.

2. Key performance indicators: The institution identifies key performance indicators (KPIs) that will be used to measure employee performance.

3. Performance review process: The institution has established a formal performance review process that includes regular evaluations and feedback. This process should be fair, objective, and consistent for all employees.

4. Provide training and development opportunities: The institution also provides training and development opportunities to help employees improve their skills and knowledge.

5. Recognize and reward performance: The institution recognizes and rewards high-performing employees. This includes bonuses, promotions, and other incentives that motivate employees to improve their performance.

Overall, an effective performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff helps SSMV to improve employee performance, enhance organisational performance, and achieve institutional goals.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

<>I.The institution prioritizes its duty towards the environment and aims to instil environmental conservation values among students.

- Tree plantation drives are regularly conducted to promote a greener campus.
- Dust bins for proper disposal of sanitary pads are installed in girls' washrooms

Evidence of Success:

Our institution has meticulously adhered to the Government notification by implementing eco-friendly practices. Solar energy panels have been installed to meet the college's electricity requirements, and the wastewater is recycled for gardening purposes.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

The institution has also banned the use of cigarettes and tobacco products, but students need to be aware of the hazardous effects of such toxic products on their health.

<>II.

Objectives of the Practice:

- To foster a strong and meaningful relationship between mentors and students for overall well-being and success

The Practice:

- Each teacher is assigned a group of 25-30 students for their study, providing personalised attention
- Special care is provided to weak students to assist with their studies and doubts

Evidence of Success:

The success of the practice is evident through various factors such as higher university rankings, improved exam results, increased attendance, reduced dropout rates, enhanced participation in co-curricular and extracurricular activities.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

The institute is committed and dedicatedly working for the holistic development of all stakeholders. The major area of focus is:

- Environment for Student Academic Success
- Importance of Addressing Health and Skill Development
- Understanding the Learning Needs of Students

- Diversifying Learning Resources and Method
- Using Plays to Create Curiosity
- Adapting Teaching Methods to Meet Student Needs
- Child-Centered Education Policy for All-Round Development of Students

The following principles guide our education policy towards individual commitment to student academic success within a community that values diversity and unity. The policy focuses on imparting knowledge and emphasises health and skill development, connecting academic learning to real-life situations.

Students who are physically or economically disadvantaged should not be deprived of the learning experience. They can be shown the lesson through projectors, laptops, or smart classes. Group discussions based on the textbook allow students to learn from each other's experiences and improve their learning processes.

Making the lesson interesting through plays creates curiosity and a desire to learn more.

Our policy focuses on students' all-around development, where teachers and students are determined to achieve their goals. Teachers keep making adjustments and changes to meet the needs of their students.
