CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

SSMV is affiliated with CCS University, Meerut. The syllabus and curriculum is designed, revised and upgraded at the university level. The institute has a mechanism for effective, documented curriculum delivery. The academic activities are monitored and audited by IQAC to ensure the delivery of the curriculum and the documentation process.

- IQAC and the Academic Planning Committee plans the session's academic calendar and circulate it to the central timetable committee to prepare a schedule. Curricular and co-curricular activities are planned in the academic calendar to achieve the desired outcomes.

- Academic processes are streamlined with time-tables and workloads for each session. Departmental reports are collected at the end of the academic session.
- According to the distribution of courses, individual teachers prepare their lecture plans for the theory and practical courses. Result analysis of every course is carried out.

The HODs plan the teaching-learning process and co-curricular activities in their departmental meetings. Teaching-learning is student-centric; many students are from rural areas so the institute follows innovative teaching and creative pedagogies to deliver effective, qualitative teaching-learning processes. Innovative methods of teaching involving project-based learning, problem-based learning and experiential learning are practised to ensure students' well-rounded development.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Educational institutions must prioritize student learning and provide resources and support to help students achieve their full potential. Different students learn at different paces and have varying levels of understanding, so it is important for institutions to provide individualized support as needed.

SSMV is taking steps to assess the learning levels of its students and provide special programs for both advanced and slow learners. This is a positive approach to ensure all students have access to the resources and support they need to succeed academically.

The specific methods that SSMV uses to assess the learning levels of students include:

- Diagnostic assessments:

- a. Mentor-mentee sessions help students with strengths and weaknesses and plan the semester accordingly.

Formative assessments applied at SSMV are

- i. Group Discussion

- ii. Classroom Tests and Assignments

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

SSMV is highly motivated to deliver student-centric learning methods.

- Experiential learning is a student-centred approach that involves learning by doing, reflecting on the experience, and applying the knowledge gained to new situations. This is implemented in various ways, such as

o Fieldworks Activities

o Skill-Oriented Programs

o PowerPoint Presentation

Experiential learning can help students develop critical thinking, problem-solving, and decision-making skills by providing them with opportunities to apply what they learn in real-life situations.

- Participative learning is another student-centred approach that emphasises active engagement and collaboration. This can include

o Group Discussion

o Alumni Interactions

o Poster making and presentation

Participative learning can help students develop communication, teamwork, and leadership skills by involving students in the learning process.

- Problem-solving methodologies are an approach to learning that involves identifying and analysing problems, developing possible solutions, and evaluating the effectiveness of those solutions. This can be applied in various contexts, such as

o Home Assignments

o Projects with real-world problems

o Class Test with case studies

To implement these student-centric methods, SSVM incorporate them into its curriculum, teaching methods, and assessment strategies. This involves designing assignments, providing training and resources for faculty, and creating opportunities for student

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools for effective teaching-learning process. Write description in maximum of 200 words

In SSVM ICT (Information and Communication Technology) enabled tools are implemented for effective teaching-learning processes. These tools can include various forms of digital technology, such as computers, tablets, interactive whiteboards, educational software, multimedia presentations, and online resources.

Teachers use these tools to engage their students in more interactive and dynamic learning experiences. They use multimedia presentations to make their lessons more visually appealing and easily understood. Educational software helps students practice and reinforce their learning, and online resources provide access to various information and educational materials.

The institute adopts the following ICT-based Teaching Learning tools.

- Google Meet to demonstrate students' skills online using Audio, Video, chart and model
- Google Classroom to track assignments and share notes
- Zoom to demonstrate online individual and group-based project activities.
- Online Motivational and Educational Videos

Institutes have well-equipped classrooms with ICT Infrastructure, as mentioned:

- LCD Projectors
- WiFi Campus
- CCTV for live monitoring
- Over Head Projector
- Digital Projectors

In addition to these tools, teachers can also use ICT-enabled tools such as digital cameras, microphones, and mobile devices to create and share content with their students. Overall, using ICT-enabled tools can enhance the teaching-learning process by making it more interactive, engaging, and efficient.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

SSMV uses the internal assessment mechanism to evaluate its students' educational progress and performance during their academic course of study. SSMV ensures a transparent and robust internal assessment mechanism for guaranteeing fairness and accuracy in grading and providing students with a clear understanding of their academic progress.

- The events proposed in the academic calendar are reviewed in the staff members' meeting, and the report is placed before the CDC (College development committee) for information and necessary suggestions.
- The institute publishes the news of success stories in the newspaper, which generalises the events' informatics as the stakeholders get a brief look at the events organised and provide suggestions for improvement.

The mode of assessment is also communicated to the students in advance, which includes written exams, oral presentations, practical demonstrations, or a combination of these methods.

In addition to transparency and robustness, SSMVensure that the internal assessment mechanism should be unbiased and standardized. This means all students are consistently evaluated using the same criteria, grading system should be fair and impartial.

Overall, a transparent and robust internal assessment mechanism is essential for promoting academic excellenceand ensuring that students receive a fair and accurate evaluation of their academic performance.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time- bound and efficient

The college ensures a transparent and fair evaluation process for its students. To achieve this, the students are informed of the evaluation process well in advance through an academic calendar displayed on each department's notice board. CCTV surveillance is in place during exams, and an invigilator is assigned to a group of 20 students.

Additionally, the college has a grievance redressal cell that impartially addresses any student concerns. Each department conducts evaluations and declares results within a specified timeframe. If students have any queries or concerns, they are encouraged to discuss them openly, and the in-charge teacher shows the correct answer sheets to the respective students.

The examination committee at the college handles any complaints regarding the results, correction of marks, or other exam-related issues by the university. The committee ensures that fair decisions are made regarding reappearing for exams conducted at the college level. Issues related to university examinations are forwarded to the university. Both students and faculty are regularly informed to maintain transparency in examination-related matters. In summary, the college is committed to transparency and fairness in all aspects of the internal examination process.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

The college ensures a transparent and fair evaluation process for its students. To achieve this, the students are informed of the evaluation process well in advance through an academic calendar displayed on each department's notice board. CCTV surveillance is in place during exams, and an invigilator is assigned to a group of 20 students.

Additionally, the college has a grievance redressal cell that impartially addresses any student concerns. Each department conducts evaluations and declares results within a specified timeframe. If students have any queries or concerns, they are encouraged to discuss them openly, and the in-charge teacher shows the correct answer sheets to the respective students.

The examination committee at the college handles any complaints regarding the results, correction of marks, or other exam-related issues by the university. The committee ensures that fair decisions are made regarding reappearing for exams conducted at the college level. Issues related to university examinations are forwarded to the university. Both students and faculty are regularly informed to maintain transparency in examination-related matters. In summary, the college is committed to transparency and fairness in all aspects of the internal examination process.

3.4 - Extension Activities

3.4.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

Extension activities are crucial in sensitizing students towards social issues and promoting holistic development. The primary objective of outreach and extension programs is to create a bridge between the community and the institution.

The Gender sensitisation Program by NSS/NCC is a regular initiative at college.

SSMV addresses the crucial issue of environmental pollution and promotes responsible citizenship through various activities like awareness programs, plantation drives, and reviving local natural resources

The college also organises extension activities to promote the institute-neighbourhood community and sensitise the students towards community needs.

The NSS organises a seven-day residential camp in a nearby adopted village, where students address social issues like cleanliness, plantation, social interaction, Beti Bacho Beti Padhao, environmental awareness, women empowerment, national integrity, veterinary guidance, and farmers. These activities have helped students develop leadership skills, communication skills, and a sense of responsibility towards society.

NCC unit of the college organizes various extension activities like plantation, road safety awareness, Ekta daud for health, Swachhta Abhiyan, and national equality awareness, which help in the overall development of the students.

SSMV believes extension activities play a vital role in promoting the holistic development of students and sensitizing them towards social issues.

5.3.2 - Institution facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities (student council/ students representation on various bodies as per established processes and norms)

Students constitute a major stakeholder in institutional growth. The college believes in giving equal opportunity to the students by supporting the college faculty members in running various activities of the college. For this, the college allows them to participate in various academic and administrative activities.

Every Year the College conducts Sports Representatives, and All courses have Class Representatives (CR) for each class, nominated by students, faculty members, and the Head of the Department. These Class Representatives address the problems pertaining to the classroom, infrastructure, library, hygiene, and issues concerning student grievances.

Students' representation facilitates its investigation into the information against any complaints.

Students also have a strong representation in various related subject presentations, seminars, cultural activities, spiritual activities, and sports activities and help in the organization and management of college events with the faculty coordinator.

Students also organize and celebrate special events like Fresher's, Farewell, National Teachers Day, National Computer Security Day, Children's Day, Yoga Day, Environment Day, and other programs.

Participation in activities enhances their Quiz, Workshops, Presentations, seminars, communication skills, management skills, leadership skills, teamwork, time management, resource management skills, and Science exhibitions and builds confidence in each student.

5.4 - Alumni Engagement

5.4.1 - There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services

The institution has an active Alumni Association "BULAND PURVA CHHATRA PARISHAD" that supports the development of the institution through various means, including financial contributions and other support services. The alumni are actively involved in the growth and progress of the institution, and their contributions play an important role in its success

The alumni association aims to support the institution in various ways, such as financially, through donations and fundraising events, and the provision of mentorship opportunities, guest lectures, and other support services for current students. The association also serves as a platform for former students to connect, share their experiences, and discuss issues relevant to their careers and personal lives.

At SSMV, associations often organise technical seminars, and awareness sessions, including social, spiritual and national devotional programs. They are also connected with various newspapers, magazines, links with new technologies such as Whatsapp, Twitter, Facebook, or Instagram.

Apart from this, to develop the career of former and new students, they discuss all those things they have faced somewhere in their life, telling those problems very easily, and how to move forward on their life path. Along with all these points, they also arrange motivational programs to help them achieve their goals.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

To support the institute's Vision i.e. to be a leading institution of higher education that fosters intellectual curiosity, critical thinking, and personal growth in students and empowers them to contribute positively to society, Governing body (IQAC) always endeavours to develop a friendly environment for teaching and learning. The IQAC welcomes the open exchange of ideas at various levels of the hierarchy. The stakeholders are involved in the decision-making process and policy formation. The institute also believes in involving stakeholders in feedback about curriculum, teaching-learning processes and the initiatives taken by the institutions.

IQAC believes in upgrading and excelling with the fast-changing needs of technology. Industry and academia experts are often called to deliver talks, training sessions, workshops & webinars.

The institute's policies and strategies are reflective to encourage a strong industry Academia relationship. The outside-world participation of faculty & staff members is highly appreciated by the management of our institute, and necessary support is provided for keeping the motivation level high. The Leadership of the Institute encourages faculty and staff to attend and organize seminars, workshops, conferences, training programs for their development.

The Management, Principal, faculty and Staff members work hand in hand to achieve Vision and Mission of the institute.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The institution practices decentralisation and participative management at various levels. The institution firmly believes that the achievement of excellence is every stakeholder's responsibility, and everyone at all levels has an equal opportunity to contribute towards improving the processes, leading to quality. The Institute believes in promoting a culture of delegation of powers through the involvement of stakeholders at all levels of an organisation in the processes of analysis, strategy development and deployment.

The top management duly ensures the availability of the infrastructure and resources required for entire institutional practices.

The HODs complete functional autonomy to decide on the various departmental activities by implementing them with the involvement of the faculty. They have been empowered to propose departmental budgets, course allocation, framing timetables, execute classes, organizing faculty, staff and student development programs, national and international Conferences, arranging Industrial visits, talks etc.

The Recruitment / Selection Processes are decentralised and carried out independently. Various Administrative and academic committees have been established like Human Right Cell, Women Grievances Committee Discipline Committee, Employable and Life Skill Centre and NSS, etc. The constitution of committees have representation from Alumni/ students/faculty/principal/ industry professionals in various capacities, reflecting the core cultural features of decentralised and participative management.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

The performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff in institutions is a process that assesses the performance and effectiveness of employees within an organisation. This system is crucial in promoting employee development, improving organisational performance, and achieving institutional goals.

Here are some steps that SSVM focuses and follow to establish an effective performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff:

1. Clear performance expectations: The institution establishes CPE for all employees. These expectations are aligned with the institution's vision and mission and are communicated to employees in a clear and concise manner.

2. Key performance indicators: The institution identifies KPIs that will be used to measure employee performance.

3. Performance review process: The institution has established a formal PRP that includes regular evaluations and feedback. This process should be fair, objective, and consistent for all employees.

4. Provide training and development opportunities: The institution also provides training and development opportunities to help employees improve their skills and knowledge.

5. Recognize and reward performance

6. Address performance issues: This can involve coaching, counselling, or disciplinary action when necessary.

Overall, an effective performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff helps SSMV to improve employee performance and to achieve institutional goals.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

Gender equality is not only a fundamental human right, but a necessary foundation for a peaceful, prosperous and sustainable world. It is also known as sexual equality or equality of the sexes.

SSMV follows following strategies to promote gender equality:

1. Establishing processes and procedures to address and prevent discrimination and harassment based on gender.
2. Providing awareness for students, faculty, and staff on gender equality and how to address and prevent discrimination and harassment.
3. Encouraging girls' education, supporting them socially, emotionally and morally.

A. Classroom Environment

1. Avoiding segregating boys and girls into separate lines, separate sports activities, and mixing seating up in the classroom.
2. Helping students identify instances of gender bias, through awareness activities or historical events, laws, and cultural changes.

B. Safety and Security

1. The major area of the Campus is under CCTV surveillance.
2. Addressing college-related violence and providing comprehensive health education.

C. Awareness

Various celebrations happen at college to promote gender equity.

D. Common Room

The Institute recognized the need for personal space for girls, especially has a separate room for the girls. This is essential for them to interact, discuss with their friends and also rest when needed.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

1. Development of E-Content and Extensive Use of ICT

objective - To actively involve students in learning through innovative methods that supplement traditional lecture methods.

Context

- In the current educational landscape, the traditional "chalk and talk" method alone cannot maintain student interest.
- The curriculum, under major reforms like the CBCSrequires innovative, application-oriented teaching.

The Practice

- Online teaching tools like Google Meet, MS Teams, and Zoom for lectures, with recordings shared for student access.

2. Adopting NEP 2020

Objective

- To align the college's educational framework with the National Education Policy 2020, emphasizing holistic, flexible, and multidisciplinary education.
- To foster an environment that encourages critical thinking, creativity, and ethical reasoning.

Context

NEP 2020 presents a paradigm shift in higher education, focusing on a more student-centric approach that requires flexibility and diversity in learning methods.

The Practice

Curriculum restructuring to include a broad range of subject choices, allowing for interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary education.

Introducing new pedagogical and assessment methods to enhance critical thinking, problem-solving, and application-based learning.

4. Evidence of Success

- Improved student engagement and satisfaction with the more flexible and diverse curriculum.

increased collaboration with industry partners, resulting in practical exposure and internship opportunities for students.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

SSMV is committed and dedicatedly working for the holistic development of all stakeholders. The major area of focus is:

- Environment for Student Academic Success
- Importance of Addressing Health and Skill Development
- Understanding the Learning Needs of Students
- Diversifying Learning Resources and Methods
- Inclusion of Physically or Economically Disabled/Weak Students
- Encouraging Group Discussion and Self-Reflection.
- Adapting Teaching Methods to Meet Student Needs
- Child-Centered Education Policy for All-Round Development of Students

The following principles guide our education policy towards individual commitment to student academic success within a community that values diversity and unity. The policy focuses on imparting knowledge and emphasises health and skill development, connecting academic learning to real-life situations.

Students who are physically or economically disadvantaged should not be deprived of the learning experience. They can be shown the lesson through projectors, laptops, or smart classes. Group discussions based on the textbook allow students to learn from each other's experiences and improve their learning processes.

Our policy focuses on students' all-around development, where teachers and students are determined to achieve their goals. Teachers keep making adjustments and changes to meet the needs of their students. The education policy is student-centered, ensuring the holistic development of every child.

Part B

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

SSMV is affiliated with CCS University, Meerut. The syllabus and curriculum is designed, revised and upgraded at the university level. The institute has a mechanism for effective, documented curriculum delivery. The academic activities are monitored and audited by IQAC to ensure the delivery of the curriculum and the documentation process.

- IQAC and the Academic Planning Committee plans the session's academic calendar and circulate it to the central timetable committee to prepare a schedule. Curricular and co-curricular activities are planned in the academic calendar to achieve the desired outcomes.
- Academic processes are streamlined with time-tables and workloads for each session. Departmental reports are collected at the end of the academic session.
- According to the distribution of courses, individual teachers prepare their lecture plans for the theory and practical courses. Result analysis of every course is carried out.

The HODs plan the teaching-learning process and co-curricular activities in their departmental meetings. Teaching-learning is student-centric; many students are from rural areas so the institute follows innovative teaching and creative pedagogies to deliver effective, qualitative teaching-learning processes. Innovative methods of teaching involving project-based learning, problem-based learning and experiential learning are practised to ensure students' well-rounded development.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

SSMV strictly adheres to the academic calendar for the activities mentioned, including Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE). It is considered a crucial activity, as a well-planned Academic calendar and its adherence greatly impact outcomes..Academic calendar is uploaded on college website.

The process followed for the finalisation of the academic calendar is as follows:

1. Before the commencement of the session, the affiliated University (CCSU, Meerut) notify the academic calendar of the University, which includes dates for Even & Odd Semester commencement, Submission of sessional marks, University examinations (Theory & Practical), Evaluation, winter/summer vacations etc.
2. The IQAC committee then requests all HODs to share dates of events planned at the Institute level by the departments during the upcoming semester.
3. While preparing the academic calendar, it is ensured that number of required teaching hours mentioned by the University should be available during the semester through the academic calendar. It also includes the dates for major events of the Institute like cultural, sports events, last teaching day, internal examinations, list of holidays.

4. Principal and IQAC committee conducts meetings with HODs, faculty members, convenors of committee to ensure smooth execution of scheduled activities.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Educational institutions must prioritize student learning and provide resources and support to help students achieve their full potential. Different students learn at different paces and have varying levels of understanding, so it is important for institutions to provide individualized support as needed.

SSMV is taking steps to assess the learning levels of its students and provide special programs for both advanced and slow learners. This is a positive approach to ensure all students have access to the resources and support they need to succeed academically.

The specific methods that SSMV uses to assess the learning levels of students include:

- Diagnostic assessments:

- a. Mentor-mentee sessions help students with strengths and weaknesses and plan the semester accordingly.

Formative assessments applied at SSMV are

- i. Group Discussion

- ii. Classroom Tests and Assignments

- iii. Quiz

- iv. Presentation

v. Internal Examinations

Summative assessments followed at SSMV are

i. End-Term Examinationii. External Lab Viva & Examination

• Enrichment programs: These are programs designed for advanced and slow learners.

a. For Slow Learners

- * Remedial classes
- * Guidance and counselling sessions
- * Mentor-Mentee sessions
- * Special guidance from subject experts

b. For Advance Learners

- * Extra Books and notes
- * Projects and Assignments

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

SSMV is highly motivated to deliver student-centric learning methods.

- Experiential learning is a student-centred approach that involves learning by doing, reflecting on the experience, and applying the knowledge gained to new situations. This is implemented in various ways, such as

- o Fieldworks Activities

- o Skill-Oriented Programs

- o PowerPoint Presentation

Experiential learning can help students develop critical thinking, problem-solving, and decision-making skills by providing them with opportunities to apply what they learn in real-life situations.

- Participative learning is another student-centred approach that emphasises active engagement and collaboration. This can include

- o Group Discussion

- o Alumni Interactions

- o Poster making and presentation

Participative learning can help students develop communication, teamwork, and leadership skills by involving students in the learning process.

- Problem-solving methodologies are an approach to learning that involves identifying and analysing problems, developing possible solutions, and evaluating the effectiveness of those solutions. This can be applied in various contexts, such as

- o Home Assignments

- o Projects with real-world problems

o Class Test with case studies

To implement these student-centric methods, SSVM incorporate them into its curriculum, teaching methods, and assessment strategies. This involves designing assignments, providing training and resources for faculty, and creating opportunities for student

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools for effective teaching-learning process. Write description in maximum of 200 words

In SSVM ICT (Information and Communication Technology) enabled tools are implemented for effective teaching-learning processes. These tools can include various forms of digital technology, such as computers, tablets, interactive whiteboards, educational software, multimedia presentations, and online resources.

Teachers use these tools to engage their students in more interactive and dynamic learning experiences. They use multimedia presentations to make their lessons more visually appealing and easily understood. Educational software helps students practice and reinforce their learning, and online resources provide access to various information and educational materials.

The institute adopts the following ICT-based Teaching Learning tools.

- Google Meet to demonstrate students' skills online using Audio, Video, chart and model
- Google Classroom to track assignments and share notes
- Zoom to demonstrate online individual and group-based project activities.
- Online Motivational and Educational Videos

Institutes have well-equipped classrooms with ICT

Infrastructure, as mentioned:

- LCD Projectors
- WiFi Campus
- CCTV for live monitoring
- Over Head Projector
- Digital Projectors

In addition to these tools, teachers can also use ICT-enabled tools such as digital cameras, microphones, and mobile devices to create and share content with their students. Overall, using ICT-enabled tools can enhance the teaching-learning process by making it more interactive, engaging, and efficient.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

SSMV uses the internal assessment mechanism to evaluate its students' educational progress and performance during their academic course of study. SSMV ensures a transparent and robust internal assessment mechanism for guaranteeing fairness and accuracy in grading and providing students with a clear understanding of their academic progress.

- The events proposed in the academic calendar are reviewed in the staff members' meeting, and the report is placed before the CDC (College development committee) for information and necessary suggestions.
- The institute publishes the news of success stories in the newspaper, which generalises the events' informatics as the stakeholders get a brief look at the events organised and provide suggestions for improvement.

The mode of assessment is also communicated to the students in advance, which includes written exams, oral presentations, practical demonstrations, or a combination of these methods.

In addition to transparency and robustness, SSMV ensure that the internal assessment mechanism should be unbiased and standardized. This means all students are consistently evaluated using the same criteria, grading system should be fair and impartial.

Overall, a transparent and robust internal assessment mechanism is essential for promoting academic excellence and ensuring that students receive a fair and accurate evaluation of their academic performance.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time-bound and efficient

The college ensures a transparent and fair evaluation process for its students. To achieve this, the students are informed of the evaluation process well in advance through an academic calendar displayed on each department's notice board. CCTV surveillance is in place during exams, and an invigilator is assigned to a group of 20 students.

Additionally, the college has a grievance redressal cell that impartially addresses any student concerns. Each department conducts evaluations and declares results within a specified timeframe. If students have any queries or concerns, they are encouraged to discuss them openly, and the in-charge teacher shows the correct answer sheets to the respective students.

The examination committee at the college handles any complaints regarding the results, correction of marks, or other exam-related issues by the university. The committee ensures that fair decisions are made regarding reappearing for exams conducted at the college level. Issues related to university examinations are forwarded to the university. Both students and faculty are regularly informed to maintain transparency in examination-related matters. In summary, the college is committed to transparency and fairness in all aspects of the internal examination process.

3.4 - Extension Activities

3.4.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

Extension activities are crucial in sensitizing students towards social issues and promoting holistic development. The primary objective of outreach and extension programs is to create a bridge between the community and the institution.

The Gender sensitisation Program by NSS/NCC is a regular initiative at college.

SSMV addresses the crucial issue of environmental pollution and promotes responsible citizenship through various activities like awareness programs, plantation drives, and reviving local natural resources

The college also organises extension activities to promote the institute-neighbourhood community and sensitise the students towards community needs.

The NSS organises a seven-day residential camp in a nearby adopted village, where students address social issues like cleanliness,plantation, social interaction, Beti Bacho Beti Padhao, environmental awareness, women empowerment, national integrity, veterinary guidance, and farmers. These activities have helped students develop leadership skills, communication skills, and a sense of responsibility towards society.

NCC unit of the college organizes various extension activities like plantation, road safety awareness, Ekta daud for health, Swachhta Abhiyan, and national equality awareness, which help in the overall development of the students.

SSMV believes extension activities play a vital role in promoting the holistic development of students and sensitizing them towards social issues.

5.3.2 - Institution facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities (student council/ students representation on various bodies as per established processes and norms)

Students constitute a major stakeholder in institutional growth. The college believes in giving equal opportunity to the students by supporting the college faculty members in running various activities of the college. For this, the college allows them to participate in various academic and administrative activities.

Every Year the College conducts Sports Representatives, and All courses have Class Representatives (CR) for each class, nominated by students, faculty members, and the Head of the Department. These Class Representatives address the problems pertaining to the classroom, infrastructure, library, hygiene, and issues concerning student grievances.

Students' representation facilitates its investigation into the information against any complaints.

Students also have a strong representation in various related subject presentations, seminars, cultural activities, spiritual activities, and sports activities and help in the organization and management of college events with the faculty coordinator.

Students also organize and celebrate special events like Fresher's, Farewell, National Teachers Day, National Computer Security Day, Children's Day, Yoga Day, Environment Day, and other programs.

Participation in activities enhances their Quiz, Workshops, Presentations, seminars, communication skills, management skills, leadership skills, teamwork, time management, resource management skills, and Science exhibitions and builds confidence in each student.

5.4 - Alumni Engagement

5.4.1 - There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services

The institution has an active Alumni Association "BULAND PURVA CHHATRA PARISHAD" that supports the development of the institution through various means, including financial contributions and other support services. The alumni are actively involved in the growth and progress of the institution, and their contributions play an important role in its success

The alumni association aims to support the institution in various ways, such as financially, through donations and fundraising events, and the provision of mentorship opportunities, guest lectures, and other support services for current students. The association also serves as a platform for former students to connect, share their experiences, and discuss issues relevant to their careers and personal lives.

At SSMV, associations often organise technical seminars, and awareness sessions, including social, spiritual and national devotional programs. They are also connected with various newspapers, magazines, links with new technologies such as Whatsapp, Twitter, Facebook, or Instagram.

Apart from this, to develop the career of former and new students, they discuss all those things they have faced somewhere in their life, telling those problems very easily, and how to move forward on their life path. Along with all these points, they also arrange motivational programs to help them achieve their goals.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

The performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff in institutions is a process that assesses the performance and effectiveness of employees within an organisation. This system is crucial in promoting employee development, improving organisational performance, and achieving institutional goals.

Here are some steps that SSVM focuses and follow to establish an effective performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff:

1. Clear performance expectations: The institution establishes CPE for all employees. These expectations are aligned with the institution's vision and mission and are communicated to employees in a clear and concise manner.

2. Key performance indicators: The institution identifies KPIs that will be used to measure employee performance.

3. Performance review process: The institution has established a formal PRP that includes regular evaluations and feedback. This process should be fair, objective, and consistent for all employees.

4. Provide training and development opportunities: The institution also provides training and development opportunities to help employees improve their skills and knowledge.

5. Recognize and reward performance

6. Address performance issues: This can involve coaching, counselling, or disciplinary action when necessary.

Overall, an effective performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff helps SSMV to improve employee performance and to achieve institutional goals.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

Gender equality is not only a fundamental human right, but a necessary foundation for a peaceful, prosperous and sustainable world. It is also known as sexual equality or equality of the sexes.

SSMV follows following strategies to promote gender equality:

1. Establishing processes and procedures to address and prevent discrimination and harassment based on gender.
2. Providing awareness for students, faculty, and staff on gender equality and how to address and prevent discrimination and harassment.
3. Encouraging girls' education, supporting them socially, emotionally and morally.

A. Classroom Environment

1. Avoiding segregating boys and girls into separate lines, separate sports activities, and mixing seating up in the classroom.
2. Helping students identify instances of gender bias, through awareness activities or historical events, laws, and cultural changes.

B. Safety and Security

1. The major area of the Campus is under CCTV surveillance.
2. Addressing college-related violence and providing comprehensive health education.

C. Awareness

Various celebrations happen at college to promote gender equity.

D. Common Room

The Institute recognized the need for personal space for girls, especially has a separate room for the girls. This is essential for them to interact, discuss with their friends and also rest when needed.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

SSMV plans and conducts various programs to promote constitutional values, rights, duties, and responsibilities of citizens. It designs various activities to create awareness about national identity and symbols with the aim of familiarizing stakeholders about fundamental duties and rights.

Independence Day is celebrated in our college on 15th August every year to mark the importance of freedom. Additionally N.S.S./NCC Volunteers organize special programs like Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav to raise awareness among students about the struggles of freedom fighters.

Republic Day is celebrated on 26th January each year, where all stakeholders of SSMV take an oath to preserve the constitutional values and rights for the betterment of the country.

Constitutional Day is celebrated every year on 26th November to commemorate the adoption of the constitution of India.

SSMV celebrates various other events such as Yoga Day, Youth Day, and Women's Day. World Environment Day is also celebrated to promote environmental awareness.

The institution also organizes a blood donation camp, Swachh Bharat Cleanliness Drive on 2nd October to promote the importance of cleanliness. All these programs and events aim to promote constitutional values, rights, duties, and responsibilities of citizens, and serve the community.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

1. Development of E-Content and Extensive Use of ICT

objective - To actively involve students in learning through innovative methods that supplement traditional lecture methods.

Context

- In the current educational landscape, the traditional "chalk and talk" method alone cannot maintain student interest.
- The curriculum, under major reforms like the CBCS requires innovative, application-oriented teaching.

The Practice

- Online teaching tools like Google Meet, MS Teams, and Zoom for lectures, with recordings shared for student access.

2. Adopting NEP 2020

Objective

- To align the college's educational framework with the National Education Policy 2020, emphasizing holistic, flexible, and multidisciplinary education.
- To foster an environment that encourages critical thinking, creativity, and ethical reasoning.

Context

NEP 2020 presents a paradigm shift in higher education, focusing on a more student-centric approach that requires flexibility and diversity in learning methods.

The Practice

Curriculum restructuring to include a broad range of subject choices, allowing for interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary education.

Introducing new pedagogical and assessment methods to enhance critical thinking, problem-solving, and application-based learning.

4. Evidence of Success

- Improved student engagement and satisfaction with the more flexible and diverse curriculum.

increased collaboration with industry partners, resulting in practical exposure and internship opportunities for students.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

SSMV is committed and dedicatedly working for the holistic development of all stakeholders. The major area of focus is:

- Environment for Student Academic Success
- Importance of Addressing Health and Skill Development
- Understanding the Learning Needs of Students
- Diversifying Learning Resources and Methods
- Inclusion of Physically or Economically Disabled/Weak Students
- Encouraging Group Discussion and Self-Reflection.
- Adapting Teaching Methods to Meet Student Needs
- Child-Centered Education Policy for All-Round Development of Students

The following principles guide our education policy towards individual commitment to student academic success within a community that values diversity and unity. The policy focuses on imparting knowledge and emphasises health and skill development, connecting academic learning to real-life situations.

Students who are physically or economically disadvantaged should not be deprived of the learning experience. They can be shown the lesson through projectors, laptops, or smart classes. Group discussions based on the textbook allow students to learn from each other's experiences and improve their learning processes.

Our policy focuses on students' all-around development, where teachers and students are determined to achieve their goals. Teachers keep making adjustments and changes to meet the needs of their students. The education policy is student-centered, ensuring the holistic development of every child.
